crops are all plan-ted there's no-thing to do, But sit here and watch while the seed-lings poke through, It's sail the world o-ver to far a-way lands, From Vin-land's far shore to A-ra-bi-a's sands, We're Gold fine as Frig-ga's hair, gems made of fire, This is just some of the stuff we ac-quire.
Row-ing for home with the good-ies we prize, Gives Vik-ing wo-men some great ex-er-cise, time to go shop-ping with axe and with maul, We're head-ing to sea we'll be back in the Fall, look-ing for bar-gains wher - ev - er we go, We shop 'til we drop ev - ry - one who says, "No."

 When mer-chants see us they blanch and they pale, We help them to have a great big clear-ance sale.
 Pull - ing the oars like we're run - ning from Jaws Helps us to fill up our tin - plat - ed bras.
